GAME 23 NAVY (3-18/0-8 PATRIOT LEAGUE)
Tuesday, February 10 - 7:00 p.m.
(Bender Arena) Washington, D.C.

LAST OUTING

Bucknell 67 - AU 62 (2/7/04); Sojka Pavilion

The Eagles forced Bucknell into 18 turnovers in the second half, but eventually fell to the Bison by five points, 67-62. AU is now 11-11 on the year and 5-3 in Patriot League play. AU used a full-court press in the second half to get back into the game. They were led by Linas Lekavicius, who finished with an AU record nine steals. When Lekavicius hit two free throws with 2:05 remaining he brought AU to within one point (58-57). However, Bucknell hit three-of-four free throw attempts from 1:36 to 1:04 to build the lead back to four points (61-57).

Bucknell jumped on the Eagles early, taking a 14-2 lead just four minutes into the game. AU climbed back into the contest on the strength of an 11-3 run. Andre Ingram started it off with a three and Andres Rodriguez followed with another trey at 13:33. Ingram hit his second three of the game and Jamaal Caterina followed with a layup to bring the Eagles to within four points (17-13) with 11:09 left in the half. The teams traded baskets until the Bison went on another run. Leading 21-17, Bucknell finished off the half by scoring 15 of the final 19 points of the first stanza for a 36-21 halftime score.

Lekavicius provided a huge spark for AU off the bench and in addition to his nine steals, he also registered four rebounds, eight points and two assists. Jernavis Draughn led American with 17 points while Ingram finished with 16, including four treys. Rodriguez finished with six points, four steals and four assists, which gives him 403 in his career.

Overall, AU caused a season-high 27 turnovers and notched 18 steals (eighth highest team total). As a team they were nearly perfect from the free throw line, connecting on 17-of-18 attempts with the lone miss coming with just 13 seconds left in the game.

THE COACHES

American University's Jeff Jones (Virginia '82), is in his fourth season as head coach of the Eagles, and 12th overall as a collegiate head coach. Jones has a career record of 198-160 (.553). He is assisted by Kelvin Jefferson (So. Conn. St. '95; second season), Kieran Donohue (Virginia '97; fourth season), Pete McLaughlin (Virginia '98; third season) and Greg Lyons (Virginia '01; first season)

Navy is coached by Don DeVoe, who is in his 12th season at Navy and 31st as a head coach. His record at Navy is (182-155) and overall (510-383). He is assisted by Dave Wojcik, Victor Mickel, Blake Flicker & Brad Enright.

DID YOU KNOW?

Jeff Jones needs just two wins to hit 200 coaching victories for his career.

DID YOU KNOWII?

Andres Rodriguez is fifth in the nation in assists per game at 7.4.

CLIMBING THE CAREER LADDER

Andres Rodriguez dished out four assists at Bucknell on Feb. 7, which gives him 403 for his career. He is now fourth overall, passing Frank Ross. Last year he had 145 assists last year, which was the eighth best single-season in AU history. If he repeats his total from last year he will finish 4th on the all-time list. This year he has 163, and needs three to grab the sixth spot. He is currently 7th on the Patriot League all-time list. He has 144 career steals, placing him 10th in AU history and 15th in Patriot League history.

A GLOBAL ROSTER

American is a global university with students from more than 150 countries world-wide. That effect has trickled down to the men's basketball roster, which features seven student-athletes from outside the United States. Matej Cresnik (Slovenia), Arvydas Eitutavicius (Lithuania) Ryan Graham (Canada), Linas Lekavicius (Lithuania), Patrick Okpwe (Cameroon), Raimondas Petrauskas (Lithuania) and Andres Rodriguez (Puerto Rico) all add an international flavor to the roster.

What's new for 2003-04

Gone are the three-point duo of Steven Miles and Glenn Stokes. The two combined for just over 48 percent of AU's offense last season. However, with nine returning letterwinners, three starts and four outstanding recruits, 2003-04 should be an exciting year. The incoming class of freshmen are Brayden Billbe, Andre Ingram, Sekou Lewis, and Linas Lekavicius.

Lekavicius, who was born and raised in Silale, Lithuania, had a stellar three-year career at The Miller School, and capped it off by being named Co-State Player of the Year. Other awards Lekavicius garnered as a senior include first team All-State, Conference Player of the Year and Central Virginia Player of the Year. He led The Miller School to back-to-back conference championships and scored over 1,500 points in his career. As a senior he averaged 25.3 points, 5.3 rebounds and 3.3 steals per game. He shot 43 percent from beyond three-point land and 62 percent from the field.

Billbe comes to American from Mercer Island, Wash., after having an outstanding senior season under long-time Mercer Island head coach Ed Pepple. This past year he led Mercer to a 22-6 record and the state semi-finals. The 6-foot-10-inch center set the school record for blocks (90) in a season and averaged 12.7 points and 9.9 rebounds per game. Billbe also dished out 48 assists and hit 71 percent of his free throws (67-94) and nearly 50 percent from the field (143-287). He was selected second team All Conference.

Coming to American from Highland Springs High School in Richmond, Va., is Andre Ingram, who was selected as the Associated Press Group AAA Player of the Year. Ingram led Highland Springs to the Virginia League High School Group AAA championship this past season, the first title in school history. For the year he averaged 22.8 points and 9.5 rebounds and was outstanding from three-point land, where he shot 49 percent. For the second year in a row, Ingram was named the Capital District Player of the Year, first team all-Central Region and All-Metro. As a junior, Ingram averaged 27.2 points per game.

The final member of the class is Sekou Lewis, a standout wing player who improved his game by prepping for a year at The Pendleton School in Florida. Originally from Cleveland, Ohio, Lewis played his high school basketball at St. Vincent-St. Mary's with LeBron James. Aside from his high school experience, Lewis also played for the Cleveland Basketball Club, which is coached by Mike Duncan. Lewis is a very good athlete who will compete for time at the small forward position as a freshman.

The 2002-03 season culminated one of the best two-year periods in the history of American University basketball. They won the Patriot League regular season title last year, and finished second this season, making it to the championship game both years. AU has won 34 games over the last two years, the best two-year period in Eagle basketball in nearly 15 years. Senior Steve Miles was named to the 2002-03 Patriot League Men's Basketball First-Team, while Glenn Stokes was second-team and Raimondas Petrauskas made the All-Rookie squad.

Latest Newcomer

Arvydas Eitutavicius joins the Eagles for the second semester. He is a freshman and was eligible versus Notre Dame, but did not play. Eitutavicius is from Klaipeda, Lithuania, but played last year at Laurinburg Institute (Laurinburg, N.C.). Laurinburg won the prep school national championship in 2002-03 (based on national rankings). As a junior he played at Norfolk Collegiate High School (Norfolk, Va.). Prior to that he competed in Lithuania.

American University

Head Coach Jeff Jones

One of the most respected teachers in the collegiate ranks, Jones took the helm of American basketball on April 17, 2000, becoming the 17th coach in the school's history.

In just three seasons as head coach, Jeff Jones has put his stamp on American University basketball, molding and rejuvenating a program that has a proud past, and is now looking at a bright future.

Three words have been associated with Jones since his days as a top-level student-athlete—Leader, Teacher, and Winner—and those could not be truer today as he begins his fourth season at the helm in 2003-04.

The 2002-03 season simply built on the huge success of 2001-02. The Eagles competed in the Patriot League for the second year and again found themselves in the championship game playing Holy Cross on ESPN. Other highlights included defeating Atlantic 10 and hometown rival George Washington, finishing second in the Patriot League regular season and again competing very well against a national schedule versus the likes of Missouri and Virginia Tech.

It was in Jones' second year that he really made his mark and helped usher American into a new chapter of its basketball history, as the University became a member of the Patriot League. Stepping into the unknown, coupled with 10 new players dotting the roster, Jones and the Eagles racked up a laundry list of accomplishments, putting the program backing the spotlight. The season could be considered a whirlwind, as American was coming off a disappointing 2000-01 campaign and was picked by many to finish in the second tier of the Patriot League. As each small success built on the one prior, the campaign culminated with a berth in the Patriot League Championship game in front of a national audience on ESPN. March 8, 2002, will be remembered as the finale to an outstanding season, but for Jones and the Eagles, it promises to be a small part of something much larger.

Noted for his ability to connect with his players and meld a unit that competes as one, Jones mentored American to the second largest turnaround in the NCAA Division I 2001-02 season, finishing with an 18-12 overall record. The 11-game improvement from 2000-2001 was second only to Bob Knight's Texas Tech squad that featured a 14-game turnaround. The 18 victories were the highest win total for the program since 1989-90, and its first winning campaign since 1990-91. The Eagles went on to capture the Patriot League regular-season title, fashioning a 10-4 record in the process. The top seed in the league tournament, the Eagles advanced to the championship game, where they fell to Holy Cross, 55-52, before the largest crowd in league history and just the second sellout in the history of AU's Bender Arena.

The accomplishments did not, by any stretch of the imagination, begin and end within the confines of the Patriot League. American gained national recognition with a 77-72 win at Florida State on Dec. 22, 2000 becoming the first Patriot League school ever to defeat a member of the renowned Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC).

Jones has made his mark on the national college basketball scene as both a student-athlete and as head coach. Following a storied high school career, he went on to star at point guard for the University of Virginia from 1978-82. After graduation he served eight seasons as an assistant coach at his alma mater before being tabbed the Cavaliers' head coach prior to the 1990-91 campaign. He would go on to lead that program for eight seasons.

Just prior to coming to American, Jones served as an assistant on Jerry DeGregorio's staff at the University of Rhode Island during the 1999-2000 season.

Named the eighth coach in Virginia men's basketball history at the ACC Championship and four 20-win campaigns. Virginia's win over Virginia Tech during the 1994-95 regular season gave Jones his 100th career victory, making him the second-fastest in school history and fifth-fastest in ACC history to accomplish the feat.

A coach with distinct style, the cornerstone of Jones' teams has been their defensive prowess. During his tenure at Virginia, he led the Cavaliers to five of the top six seasons for field goals percentage defense.

Virginia made its fifth NCAA Tournament appearance in seven seasons under Jones in 1996-97. Finishing that season with an overall mark of 18-13, the Cavaliers fell to Iowa in a West Region first-round game.

Jones enjoyed one of the finest seasons of his coaching career in 1994-95, leading Virginia to a final mark of 25-9. The program advanced to the NCAA Tournament's "Elite Eight" and earned a share of its first ACC regular-season crown since 1983. Virginia finished that season ranked eighth in the final CNN/USA Today poll, and 13th in the final Associated Press media poll. Those were the highest final national rankings by a Virginia team since 1983.

In 1992-93 Jones became the only coach in conference history to win at least 20 games in each of his first three seasons. He led Virginia to a 21-10 record (9-7 ACC) and a trip to the 1993 East Region semifinals in the NCAA Tournament.

In 1991-92, Jones' Cavaliers posted a 20-13 record and went on to win the National Invitation Tournament (NIT) championship. As a result, Jones became the first individual to win an NIT title as both a player and a coach; he is still the only person to accomplish the feat. In his first season as the head coach at Virginia, Jones led the 1990-91 squad to a 21-12 overall record. He was the only rookie coach in the nation that year to have his team in the NCAA Tournament.

Prior to his eight-year run as the head coach, Jones was a full-time assistant on Terry Holland's staff at Virginia staff at a UVa from 1986 to 1990, a part-time assistant for three seasons and a graduate assistant for one. The Cavaliers compiled an incredible overall record of 162-95 (.630) during those eight seasons as an assistant, participating in six NCAA Tournaments, while advancing to the Final Four in 1984 and the Final Eight in 1989. Virginia also competed in one National Invitation Tournament (NIT) during his tenure.

As a four-year starter (1972-82) at Virginia, Jones was known as a leader and prolific passer. With Jones at the controls of a potent offense, UVa compiled an overall record of 102-28 (.785), while he led the Cavaliers to two NCAA Tournaments and two NITs during his career. Virginia captured the 1980 NIT title, and advanced to the NCAA Final Four in 1981. Jones graduated from Virginia in 1982 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Psychology.

Jones finished his career as Virginia's all-time assists leader (598), and his 200 assists during the 1979-80 season was UVa's single-season record until both marks were later broken by John Crotty. Jones served as the team captain as a senior during the 1981-82 season and played in 129 games during his career. For his career, he averaged 6.6 points and 4.6 assists per game, while shooting 52.2 percent from the field and 74.3 percent from the free-throw line.

A native of Owensboro, KY, Jones is a member of Apollo High School Hall of Fame. His father, Bob, is a former coach of Kentucky Wesleyan University, which he led to the 1973 NCAA Division II title.

Jones and his wife, Danielle, reside in Arlington, Va. He is the father of three children—Meghann (15), Madison Perry (13), and Jeffrey Robert (10).

Jeff Jones - Head Coach

Did You Know?

- Jeff Jones led the Eagles to the second biggest turnaround in the NCAAs in 2001-02. The 11-game improvement was second only to the 14-game game turnaround Bobby Knight and Texas Tech enjoyed.
- Entering the 2003-04 season, Jeff Jones is the only individual to win an NIT championship as both a player (1980) and a coach (1992).
- Jones led his 1990-91 Virginia squad to a 21-12 record, becoming the winningest first-year coach in ACC history. He was the only rookie coach in the nation that year to have his team in the NCAAs.
- AU's 34 wins during the 2000-02 seasons is the most wins by American since the 1989-91 seasons.

Jeff Jones AU Highlights

- 2002 Basketball America Patriot League Coach of the Year
- Led AU 2nd-best turnaround in NCAA Division I in 2001-02
- 2002 Patriot League Regular Season Champions
- 2002 Patriot League Championship game
- Developed Patriot League Player of the Year Patrick Doctor
- Win at Florida State (77-72) - first ever Patriot League school to beat a member of the ACC
- Led AU to win over GW, first time since 1989-90
- Win over Holy Cross in 2003 was first-ever
- 2003 Patriot League Championship game
- 2003 Team earned three All-Patriot League selections
