

International Classroom- American University

Cultural Consultants 2007-2008

Thank you American University Students for bringing your culture alive to DC Public School Students!

Mhabeni Bona (from India) teaches students how to greet each other in Hindi. Mhabeni is getting her bachelor's degree in International Studies (top)

Professor Bill Davies teaches students about traditional cuisine from his home country of the United Kingdom. Professor Davies teaches at the AU Law School (bottom left)

Maa-Ablah Apo demonstrates how to wear beautiful traditional outfits from her home country of Ghana. Maa-Ablah is getting her graduate degree in Accounting (top right)

Yutaro Yasui teaches students to fold an origami during a presentation on his home country of Japan. Yutaro is getting his bachelor's degree in International Relations and Economics (bottom left)

