

Women & Politics Institute

Summer Internship

Name: Sarah Brewer
Associate Director, Women & Politics Institute

Contact: 202-885-3103
sbrewer@american.edu

Position: Summer Interns

Women & Politics Institute interns help the Institute with its myriad efforts including its summer leadership training programs, research projects, and on-going administrative work. As a member of the National Council of Women's Organizations (NCWO), Women & Politics Institute interns also participate in the New Faces, More Voices program. Through seminars and workshops New Faces, More Voices fosters communication and collaboration among NCWO interns, feminist policymakers, and other organizations with compatible social and economic goals. This unique opportunity for broad-based training and cross-generational dialogue provides NCWO interns with the skills they need for advocating women's equity beyond their internships in Washington, D.C. Applicants must be detail oriented and organized and have a working knowledge of Microsoft Office, Publisher, and Lotus Notes programs.